An Open invitation is extended to you and your Organization to attend the New Way Summit scheduled for July 1 – 4 2010 commencing the National NAIDOC Week.

You are invited to attend the Official Opening at 1:00pm at the Kangan Institute, Pearcedale parade, Broadmeadows on Thursday July 1, 2010.

Further you are invited to attend Friday 2 July – Sunday 4 July at Trades Hall Council – Cnr Victoria and Lygon street Carlton.

A number of significant issues pertinent to our future will be addressed by leading Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal, traditional law practitioners, academics, aspiring politicians, managers, and community representatives.

The Summit will bring together noted Australian academics, professional, political and community figures for a unique meeting on the status and place of Aboriginal people in contemporary Australia, and beyond.

This summit will have strong appeal for educators, administrators, and Aboriginal Affairs practitioners, senior and middle management personnel from both private and public sectors, government agencies and communities who will be attracted to the breadth and depth of issues under discussion.

Confirmation of your participation would be appreciated at your earliest convenience.

Bookings see Cheryl Kaulfuss on – 0401 806 331

See attached program for further details on speakers, sessions, times and location.

Sharon Firebrace - Summit Convenor

0401 414 967